EDITORIAL

Sixty thousand of Chicago's voters resolved to cast a ballot in the recent Mayoralty election. They were mostly intelligent and upright citizens, who remained at home deplored the disengagement of municipal politics.

Democrats Call, rep., says it is glad the Republicans secured control of the state government, because of the measures they have secured for the benefit of the taxpayers: expenditure about $500,000, and an audit over $25,000.

Hamburg ranks as one of the foremost trading cities of the world, its commercial importance being due in large measure to the position it occupies as a distributing center in northern Europe for commodities brought from other parts of the globe. In 1887, the latest year for which official returns are available, its combined import and export trade reached the enormous value of $1,265,961,614, a decided increase over the preceding years. The average imports from the United States for four years, 1891-1895, was $45,854,497.

A Portland dispatch says: "Members of the different commissions, who the secretary of state and governors claim are out of office and will not issue warrants for their salaries and expenses, held a meeting and decided to bring action against the state and test their claims to their several positions." Of course they will fight for their offices. The only danger is that the are so numerous that they will swarm down upon the next legislature like grasshoppers on Egypt and render that unfortunate body helpless to oppose them.

The New York chamber of commerce is pretty nearly unanimous in denouncing the Lingley tariff bill. Notable individual expressions of opinion in that quarter to the same effect are not wanting. Many leading members of the chamber think the resolutions do not go far enough. Charles Stewart Smith says the enactment of the bill as it stands will be an act of bad faith to a large number of citizens who contributed liberally to elect McKinley, and will, he believes, send New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and New Jersey back into the Democratic column. A leading Republican of Brooklyn, Franklin Woodruff, declares that if the bill goes through as it is he shall vote the Democratic ticket hereafter.

A hopeful sign of the times is the interest shown by the W. C. T. U. in humane education. "Heart Culture," a text book for teaching kindness to animals, arranged for use in public and private schools, is a new book on a new subject that will be issued by the Whitaker & Ray Co., of San Francisco, on May 1. The author, Miss Emma Page, is the national organizer of mercy, of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. She has prepared a series of lessons, including poetry and prose from well-known authors, and edited the same, so that the book can be used as a supplementary reader. The motto, "There is nothing so kindly as kindness, there's nothing so royal as truth," is the keynote of the book. It is a book that will be as popular as "Black Beauty," because it teaches kindness, not only to the horse, but to birds, insects and to man, woman and child. It is a great book for training the finer sensibilities of the young. The sooner all religious and reformatory organizations realize that humane education is more important than any development of emotional religious sentiment without "heart culture" the better.

SENATOR VEST DISCUSSES THE SECTARIAN SCHOOL PROBLEM.

Washington, April 13. In the Senate Vest spoke in criticism of the proposal of the Indiana delegation to still, abolishing sectarian Indian schools. He knew, he said, that what he said would subject him to bitter criticism. He was brought up a protestant and had no connection with the Catholic church, but he had no sympathy with that cowardly and ignorant sentiment that any religious denomination could menace our liberties. He has been reared to believe that the Indians were opposed to Republican institutions, but he had traveled through the Indian country, visiting the schools, and had found them a trystery on education, except when conducted by the Jesuits. Broken-down preachers and defunct politicians were sent out to the Western country to teach the Indian children. He had found, he said, that the only Indian schools accomplishing any good were those conducted by the Jesuits.

"If I had control of these schools," proceeded Vest, "I would give them to those who have studied the Indians; I would infinitely rather see them Catholics than savages. I do not belong to that sect which would rather see an Indian damned than to we him in the Catholic church."

The Indian bill was not completed when the senate adjourned to Monday.

HANSBROUGH'S SCHOLAR.

Senator Hansbrough has introduced a bill authorizing the appointment of a commission to introduce and popularize the bread foods of the United States among the people of the Orient. It provides that the commission shall consist of three persons, to be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate, and to be under the control of the secretary of agriculture. The salary of the commissioners shall be $5,000 a year, and the commission is authorized to employ a secretary at a salary of $3,000, and $30,000 is appropriated to defray the expenses of the commission in the prosecution of its work.

The president sent to the senate a number of nominations, including the following:

Treasury—Percy C. Henninghausen, of Maryland, commissioner of immigration at the port of Baltimore, Md.

Postmasters—Idaho—Jacob C. Gardner, Grangeville. Wyoming—Geo. W. Hoyt, Cheyenne. James A. McVey, Lander.

TARIFF WORK.

The Republican sub-committee of the senate committee on finances held an all-day session at the capitol, to afford an opportunity to other senators to make suggestions on the tariff bill. A more pronounced favorable reception was given to the suggestion for a drawback duty on imported tin cans, in which fruits and salmon are exported. The suggestion appeared to meet with favor.

Captain Barker, commanding the battleship Oregon telegraphed the navy department, from Bremerton, where the ship is in drydock, that he had found an obstruction to navigation consisting of boulders or sunken piling upon which the Oregon had settled while lying in front of the dock waiting for high tide. The chart shows two feet of water more than the Oregon's draught in the place the obstacle was found. It was supposed the debris was left by the building of the dock at the completion of their work.

CATARACH CANNOT BE CURED

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarach is a blood constitutional disease and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies.

Hall's Catarach Cure is taken internally and acts directly upon the blood and mucous of faces. Hall's Catarach Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifier, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces.
